Abstract

A brief summary of the report, so that the overall details can be understood completely from reading just this but lacking significant details and justification.

Overall Goals

Outline of the overreaching goals of this major development phase, with changes as needed as we progress. Should not change much in each major development phase, and remains short, as to not be repeated in later sections.

State of the Project

What was achieved over the last week, where should we go from here? Have there been any changes in plans or understanding. How successful was last week.

Goals for this Week

What are the goals for this week? What resources will be used? What plans are we following? How will we do this? Justify what we have done. This section should be very detailed, with a brief summary paragraph to begin, before informed and clear sections outlining who, what, when, why, and how.
